

We Make Your Success Personal

People, not just software, are what make CampaignerCRM™ successful for you. Our personalized approach simplifies your customization, set up and deployment of CampaignerCRM, while our training services ensure that your entire team has all the resources necessary to be successful. Starting from the very first day, we work with you to fully understand the unique needs of your organization and your business. Then we develop a comprehensive, personalized program for your entire team. It's how we make sure that you — and your people — are successful, now and in the future.

Set Up and Training That Fits Your Business — and Your People

For CampaignerCRM™PRO and CampaignerSPM™ customers, our Implementation Team gives you expert guidance for importing, formatting and organizing your data, while we share our experience, best practices and much more. Our live, interactive, hands-on training then gets your entire team fully prepared, involved and motivated. With three levels of implementation and end-user training options, you'll be sure to get the right combination of implementation and training features that your business requires:

- Quick Start Training

Get started quickly with three helpful hours of implementation and best-practice training, including easy-to-use self-help modules, detailed technical support, and community training. We also provide a sales process review, data migration review and custom, detailed best practices consulting.

- Success Start Training

Go even further with our Success Start Training module. You get five hours of implementation support plus three hours of custom, site-specific training. We'll also cover expanded Basic Training, Advanced Training, and Management Reporting.

- Advantage Training

Get our complete implementation and training program featuring 12 hours of implementation support along with three hours of custom site-specific, personalized training. We cover everything in our other training programs, plus an expanded sales process review, data migration review, and custom, detailed best practices consulting.

Deployment and Training Options

We've made getting started with CampaignerCRM simple, but we know that every organization is different and each has unique needs. That's why we give you a choice of ways to let us help you get started using CampaignerCRM. Our three training options ensure that you'll get the right level of training and support that best meets your organization and business needs — and your budget.
